

RELIGIOUS NOTICES.

Divine services will be held in Bloomsburg, to-morrow, (Sunday, Sept. 27th) at the following Churches:

Episcopal Church.—REV. H. TULLIDGE, Services at 10 o'clock, A. M., and at early candle-light in the evening. Presbyterian Church.—REV. D. J. WALLER.—Service at 10 o'clock, A. M. Methodist Church.—Service at 3 o'clock, P. M., in the Court House, by Rev. W. COLVIER.

Gone to the City.—The Editor.

Mr. THOMAS McNEIL, one of the survivors of the wreck Central America, has returned to his home in Bloomsburg. He gives an awful account of the scene.

The fall months in this latitude are the most pleasant portion of the year.—The heat is not oppressive and the cold not severe. A happy medium.

Bloomsburg is everywhere alive with business. Brickmakers, Masons, Carpenters, &c., are actively engaged in the industrial pursuits of their respective avocations.

Hon. Thomas H. Burrows, of Lancaster, has consented to deliver the annual Address, before the Columbia County Agricultural Society, at Bloomsburg, on the Fair Ground, on Friday, the 23rd of October.

The "Iron Horse" is now running on the West end of the "Lackawanna & Bloomsburg Rail Road!" Let him rip.—May he soon meet his colleague from the Northern end of the track, which has long since been running down to Nanticoke.

BUCK-WHEAT.—We observe that there is a very large crop of this excellent grain in the country this year, and what is better, that it is a full yield, and will be in great abundance. Harvest, who don't like Buckwheat cakes. We want a large and liberal allowance of the precious stuff.

Gentlemen should remember that they are not at liberty to read type in a printing office, no more than they are at liberty to examine manuscripts or peep over the paper, during press hours. We recall the expression, GENTLEMEN never do such things, and certain individuals, it is hoped, will take the admonition.

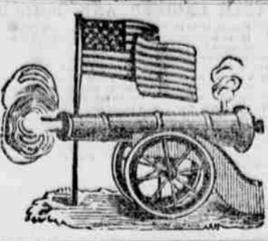

IRON DALE.—This is the name of the village in which is located the extensive works of the Iron Works Iron Company. It is situated about half a mile north of Bloomsburg on the Big Fishing Creek. Iron Dale is a pleasantly arranged and flourishing village; destined ere long, to become a point of great business importance.

The dedication exercises of the new St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, in Bloomsburg, were performed on last Sabbath. There were quite a large concourse of people in attendance, and the Pastor—Rev. E. A. SHARRETT, was assisted by a number of neighboring Clergymen. We understand that contributions to an amount of some $1,000 were made for the liquidation of the debt incurred in the erection of the Church edifice.

Mr. HUGH McCOLLUM, of Jersey-town, in this county, has laid us under many obligations for the presentation of a basket of fine Grapes and large Tomatoes. Unfortunately for the vegetables—not for us—we devoured them without ascertaining their weight. Suffice it to say, they were of the largest growth of any we have seen in this country. Again, we thank our friend, Mr. McCollum.

Bloomsburg is one of the most healthy, handsomely located and agreeable villages in Northern Pennsylvania. Beautifully situated near the river, on a southern descent, and commanding in the distance a most romantic country scenery, make it a desirable country retreat for strangers who may wish to visit the Iron region of the State. Our Hotels are well kept, and in the very best condition.

There are many ways by which young men and girls—it would be slender to call the latter ladies—exhibit to those around them a lack of parental discipline necessary to a decent deportment in society, and in none so much as in misbehaving in church. Whenever we observe a girl or upstart boy tittering at such places, and otherwise exhibiting antics of the monkey, we take it for granted they were never taught at home better manners. It shows an amount of ignorance and disregard for the sanctuary, the minister and congregation, for which they can be excused upon no other grounds than that of parental delinquency; for one who has been taught at home to observe the commonest civilities towards others, would blush to thus demean himself or herself in public. Many parents who carry "high heads" are censurable in this respect as well as those in the more humble walks of life. We have not the first time to witness such exhibitions on the part of swaggering, perfumed young gentry of the "tipper-crust" grade.

HON. J. GLANCY JONES,

The oft tried and ever-faithful standard-bearer of the glorious "Democracy of Old Berks," Has, in answer to an invitation, agreed to Address the PEOPLE OF COLUMBIA, prior to the General Election—perhaps next SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3rd, Of which further notice will be given.

Extensive Sale of Real Estate.

Messrs. W. & D. Snyder, Administrators of the Estate of Hon. DANIEL SNYDER, deceased, offer to sell at Public Sale, through the advertising columns of the Columbia Democrat, on Saturday, the 24th of October next, a large amount of VALUABLE REAL ESTATE, in town and country, to which we invite the attention of capitalists generally.

A merited Compliment.—JOSHUA COLE, Esq., the Editor of the German Paper, at Easton, has been nominated for County Treasurer. This is only a fair appreciation of an honest and meritorious democrat. Last year the "Fro-monsters" offered Mr. COLE, the next little pile of $3,000, in gold, to espouse their corrupt cause, but his democracy, like that of Gen. Jackson's, was too impregnable, to be bribed, brought or sold!

Capt. JOHN S. FOLMER, Collector at Beach Haven, died at his residence in Limestone township, Montour county, on Friday last week, of Typhoid Fever, aged about 52 years. Mr. Folmer was an excellent citizen and honest man. We sympathize with his afflicted family and numerous friends in their great bereavement.

In speaking of the Republican candidates, the Bloomsburg Republican says: "Not one of them sought nominations. It was the Convention sought them." We have a better opinion of the men of Columbia, than to suppose that any could be found who would seek the nomination of that party.—Berwick G. Zette.

We learn that a man named ELLIAM ROBBINS, while passing along the Berwick turnpike, in this county, one night last week, was attacked by a panther, but succeeded in beating the ferocious animal off with a heavy club, before he received material injury.—Sullivan Dem.

GEN. PACKER, although not making a regular canvass of the State, has spoken with great effect at several large meetings in the western counties.

The wife of Andrew Bremer, who resided in Davidson township, Sullivan county, committed suicide by hanging herself, on Monday, the 7th inst.

In Ferrandville, Sept. 6th, FRANKLIN SCOTT PERKINS, only child of Forsyth and Mary Ann Perkins.

In Henlock County, Columbia county, on the 5th of September 1857, Mr. JOSEPH GRIPAS, in the 58th year of his age.

MARRIAGES. In Fishingcreek, on Monday, Sept. 14th inst., in Fishingcreek twp., by Elder J. Sutton, Mr. JOHN EVANS, of Madison, Luzerne county, to Miss ELLEN McHENRY of Stillwater, Columbia county.
